What A

Every day is a journey.
From our driveways to our destinations, we encounter many trails, signposts and detours .
Not all of the roads are smooth;
there are bumps and potholes and many intersections where we must choose our route wisely and decide when to move on, when to slow and when to let others have the right of way. When we finally reach our destination, whether it be a complete stop or just a short rest before hitting the road again, we can pause and look back and agree...

Sarah Bagshaw is a senior here at Mill River from Crawley, England. She wanted to travel and the U.S. seemed perfect because she will be doing American studies at Wales University. Sarah says Vermont has a lot of trees and a more relaxed atmosphere. She dislikes having to travel so far for entertainment but otherwise it's great here.

Maria Veronica Quiroga is a senior exchange student from Argentina. She likes Vermont for its landscape, malls, and people. Vero sees the differences between Argentina and America but it doesn't stop her from having fun. One significant item of difference that Vero has noticed is that Americans although open and friendly are colder than people in Argentina.

EXCHANGE

Libor Kucera is an eleventh grader at Mill River from the Czech Republic. He came to the U.S. to meet new people, learn a foreign language, and discover another culture. Libor likes the beauty of the country but finds it boring for young people. He likes Mill River and the people here and loves Vermont for its skiing.

Ksenija Kudryautseva is an exchange student from Siberia, Russia in the ninth grade. She had heard a lot about the U.S. but hands on experience gave her the truth. Ksenija really likes the U.S. and Mill River. Flag squad, maple syrup, and Vermont's nature are a few of the items she will never forget as well as her friends and host family.

Monica Christina Merschrod Serrano is a senior here at Mill River was born in Ithaca, New York but moved to Latin America as a child. She has lived in the countries of Ecuador, Costa Rica, Honduras, and Peru. Monica says she visited the U.S. at least once a year for vacations and is now living in Shrewsbury. She will be attending Malboro College this fall.

Stage

Stage 40 is the amazing program of the performing arts where one can sit back and watch with admiration as our fellow students emerge as talented actors, taking on challenging roles as if they were second nature. After every performance the applause is enormous, as clapping and cheering fill the theatre. But one must not forget the many people working behind the scenes, preparing with anticipation for those few nights where all that has been worked toward is finally on display for the world to behold. Performances this year included The Miracle Worker, Flyboy, and Pinocchio. The performing arts bring much color and life to the road that we all must travel.

COUNCIL

This year's Student Council has accomplished many things to keep Mill River students involved and entertained, including the last dance of the year. As you can see from the pictures, those who went had a fantastic time. May next year's Student Council be as successful!

CHORUS

Mill River's musicians are constantly developing their knowledge and abilities through performances and in their participation in vocal ensembles such as the Seventh Grade Chorus, Junior Chorus (grades 8 & 9), Senior High Chorus, and the Senior Chamber Singers.

Many of these students extend their studies through a participation in Honor Ensembles at the District, All State New England, Eastern and/or National levels.

The Band

The instrumental programs offered by Mill River include Seventh Grade Band, Junior Band (grades 8 & 9), Senior High Band (grades 10, 11, & 12), Jazz Lab Studies Ensemble, and Senior Jazz Ensemble. Like their vocalist counterparts, the instrumentalists also work towards All States, New England, Eastern and the national-level competitions and performances.

STAFFORD TECH

THE STUDENTS OF MRUHS.....

The National Honor Society is made up of current Seniors, and at the end of each year new members are elected from the class of this year's Juniors.

Members of the NHS are elected by virtue of their grade point average, leadership abilities and past and present community service. The group picture below includes this and next year's NHS members. The NHS, headed by madame Sully (Maureen Sullivan), does community service for the towns surrounding Mill River, including the delivery of food baskets at Christmas time.

GUIDES

This years spirit staff started out slow but as the year progressed the yearbook also began to grow in form and content. If someone were to burst into the middle of one of the meetings, as people frequently did, they could witness anything from laughter and planning to death threats and whining. Though all of the late night meetings, the stress, confusion, and aching paid off with the result product of the 1997 yearbook. If you were to confront any of the yearbook staff members and ask them what they thought of this years staff, they would probably tell you

Keepsakes

I've often thought that when I die
I'd like to leave a trail
Sparkling and glistening in the sky like a huge comet's tail.

But, if I cannot leave bright light
I'd like to leave a song, --
Perhaps not a grand symphony
Just a tuneful sing-a-long.

-Marion Loveland

"Kate Powers was a warm and gentle young woman, flowing into adult life with the brightness and color of the music which she made and which gave her joy. She was killed suddenly last November on an icy road in the first snow squall of the winter. She was 16. Her loss is a deep sadness to the small rural mountain community where she lived and was loved.

"In the choices she made during her short life Kate embodied the principles of her close family -- the beauty of simplicity, the value of steady persistence, the centrality of friendship, the quiet calm of the mountains and the warmth of a family hearth. Kate was exuberant in her convictions and fully engaged in the wonderful and unpredictable turmoil of an emerging life.

Her loss is as inexplicable as the infectious happiness that her quiet smile conveyed."

Celebrating 10 years of Service

* This yearbook was digitized by volunteers from the Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

Even the longest journey begins with one step.

*Many times I've been alone,
and many times I've cried.
Anyway, you'll never know
the many ways I've tried.
And still they lead me back,
to the long and winding road.*
